Go Back To School with Voluntary Pre-Kindergarten!

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. August 15, 2011 — The Early Learning Coalition encourages eligible families to go Back to School with Voluntary Pre-Kindergarten (VPK). Families can enroll their children in the FREE VPK program for the 2011-2012 school year.

To be eligible, families must be residents of the State of Florida and the enrollee must turn 4-years-old on or before September 1st. When enrolling, families will receive a VPK certificate allowing their child to attend VPK at a qualified program provider in Duval County.

This community effort will be in partnership with Wells Fargo Company.

Parents will need to bring proof of child's age and proof of Florida residency. Typical examples for each are:

For proof of age:

Birth Certificate, Blue shot record signed by doctor, Passport, or Military ID.

For proof of residency: ADDRESS MUST MATCH APPLICATION.

Driver's License, Utility bill, Lease Agreement or Pay stub.

WHEN: August 15th through August 26th
